The 30 Years of Women in Rotary, Part III

By Herbert K. Lau, Rotary China Historian

Women in Rotary as Rotarians — a chronology

1989: At its first meeting after the 1987 US Supreme Court decision, the R.I. Council on Legislation votes 328 to 117, well over the two-thirds majority, to eliminate the requirement that membership in Rotary clubs be limited to males and permits any club in any country to admit into membership qualified persons without regard to gender.

June 1990: Approximately 20,200 women are members of 5,027 Rotary clubs in 31 countries and territories. There were 4 women Rotarians in Hong Kong, while 2 in Taiwan.

April 1991: An all-female Rotary Club of Taipei Fu-Jung in Taipei, Taiwan, was admitted to Rotary International on April 19, 1991.

July 1995: On July 1, 1995, 8 women from the United States joined 507 male colleagues as district governors. In doing so, they became the first women in the history of Rotary International to hold that key post.

We marched into UMAAMI Global Kitchen for the 2nd summer fellowship. 9 members gathered with 4 guests including mom of Rita, daughter of Thilo & Natalie and wife of David. It was a perfect Rotary family dinner.

There was no formality of a typical Rotary meeting- no flag, no bell, no Four-Way Test, no happy money, no guest speaker. But President Terri did not forget the spirit of Rotary- fellowship and service. She made the most use of the relaxed atmosphere to discuss the design of Rotary business card, acquiring a sponsor for the centennial celebration, and even purchase orders of the centennial limited edition pins from our German members.

The shop master kindly offered a drink for the toast and joined the gathering. UMAAMI named after a Japanese word "umami", which means essence of taste. Their foods really described well variety of umami.

Pagoda Portrait: Chair of Service Project Committee Rita Malvone

We know her as a restless woman full of energy who sometimes is accompanied to Club meetings by her mother Mama Carms. Rita Malvone not only holds the Chair of Service Project Committee, she also communicates and connects with people far beyond RCS activities. Pagoda portraits the person behind the office.

When did you join RCS and who was your sponsor: I joined RCS in September 2015. David Smith and Andy Hill both sponsored me and really encouraged me to join. On paper, though, I think Dave was the official sponsor.

Where are you hailing from: I grew up in a town called Massapequa on Long Island, New York. In 2011, I moved to Nanjing and then onward to Shanghai in 2012.

What are you doing professionally: I'm a business performance consultant and an executive coach. I help individuals to achieve their goals, and I help companies set their strategic plan, improve their organization effectiveness, and ultimately, operate better, smarter, and faster. This has led me to also become a CEO whisperer, a speaker, a trainer, a facilitator, and a writer. My background in marketing, international business, and supply chain management positions me to address most general business challenges.

What would you like to share with our readers about your family: I come from a fairly traditional Italian family. Most of you have met Mama Carms (aka Crazy), my mother, and some of you have met Bei, my feisty, deaf, food-obsessed pup. I'm sad you never got to meet my father. He left this world in 2010, and I know he would have loved everything about RCS.

What are your hobbies, apart from RCS: I love Art Deco and history. I regularly take tours in Shanghai and I travel as much as I can. Every month, I try to do something new that I've never done before – whether it is climbing on the outside of a building, or riding a motorcycle – I'll do nearly everything at least once. I am a baker, a SCUBA diver, and an avid theater goer.

How do you recharge your battery: To recharge, I don't make plans on Sundays after 3PM – that's 'me time'. I love to go for long walks in Shanghai with a book in my ears and, most of the time, with Bei in her stroller. Whenever possible, I go to the beach and put my feet in the sand.

Best/Last book you read and why: I have a pattern I follow: 3 business/personal growth books, 1 book on China, 1 on something else I should learn about, and then 1 book for pleasure. I recently finished "Principles", by Ray Dalio and "The Power of Vulnerability" by Brene Brown. My favorite books include "Start with Why" by Simon Sinek, "The Alchemist" by Paulo Coelho, and "The Hiding Place" by Corrie Ten Boom.

What is your favorite place in Shanghai?: The Fairmont Peace Hotel. Other favorite spots include: the boutiques of the FFC, the Office Bar, and my bridge (Nanpu Daqiao).

What is your advice to any new member of RCS: Get involved. The fellowship is so much richer when you are active, join a committee, attend a service project, share your ideas. This organization has so many assets – including YOU!

Centennial Celebration Sponsorship Invitation

Dear Fellow Rotarians and Friends,

Rotary is an organization providing humanitarian service, encouraging high ethical standards in all vocations and helping build goodwill and peace in the world. We are now asking for your help to gather sponsorship donations to continuously support in RCS projects and programs.

Enclosed you have a sponsorship package proposal. Please follow the instructions and send the Commitment Form by August 16, 2019 to Rotary Club of Shanghai at centennial@rotaryshanghai.org.

2019-20 Presidential Theme: Connect for good causes

By RCS President Terri Lau

Terri Lau – President

Rotary provides the platform for a group of like-minded professionals, scholars, entrepreneurs, leaders in their own field to meet and to serve the community. Through the service projects we take the action to raise awareness to make changes, to provide service to others.

As a member of the non-districted group of 26 Rotary clubs, 10 Rotaract, 18 Interact clubs and a RCC in Mainland China today, I believe it's the perfect time to connect within our Rotary family. The joint talents and effort will benefit all parties for the good cause. I invite all members to take an active role, to participate in club meetings and activities. Three key words to define an active Rotarian in my interpretation: Meet! Connect! Serve!

Last but not the least: We Celebrate! Rotary year 2019-20 is a special year for RCS when RCS was first chartered on October 1, 1919. Only a few clubs have been chartered before. A hundred years later, RCS has become a club that connects for the good cause. Celebrate with us this very special anniversary.

Basic Info of our Club

First chartered on 1 October 1919
Rechartered on 8 February 2006
Number of active Members – 59

“Gift of Life” – Heart Surgery
