Comedy Night

As one can see from the above (thank you David), Comedy Night and beer brought out the best (or the worst?) in Shanghai Rotarians. After it became clear that there were only tickets sold for the “raunchy” show at 22:00 and the “clean” show at 20:00 would be deserted, emergency measures had to be taken – e.g. the “clean” show was remade into a “raunchy” one as well. It remains unclear what message this gives to the world or Rotary or the world at large – Join Raunchy Rotary? Anyway some even attended the show twice – such was the demand for raunchy entertainment. The setting was the lovely “Real Shanghai Bar” and their upstairs stage – many also appreciated the good beer and even Dutch food there. All enjoyed the show, the place, the fellowship until long after midnight. A big “Thank you” to “Comedy Corner” who donated the proceeds.

Notes from our last Fellowship

Currently all our fellowships are still rather intimate occasions with only a small number of Rotarians in attendance and very few guests. This is a marked difference to how it was before, but makes for better fellowship as the group remains small. Thus also the last meeting was mostly about fellowship, though Alain gave an update on the Greenhouse project in Qinghai and we also saw Carlotta's induction. Carlotta is well known to all and also has provided you, dear Rotarinas, with several Pagoda's over the last few month. Thank you and welcome, Carlotta.

In total we saw 10 Rotarians joining, plus 1 visiting Rotarian and 1 friend. We could collect 1200 RMB in happy money – thank you to all contributors!
