Upcoming speech:

Flip your talent

By
Gabor Holch

Gabor Holch is a Certified Management Consultant (CMC) specialising in leadership development, communication and nurturing personal talent.

A graduate of international relations and diplomacy, he started his career in international development projects at the United Nations and OSCE. In 2002 he moved to China and shifted to management consulting. Since 2008 (when he acquired CMC designation) his focus has been management and leadership related consulting. Gabor holds functions in various professional organisations. He is Associate Partner in the Munich Leadership Group, Board Member of the Certified Management Consultants Global Institute (CMC-GI) and associate in three global consulting companies. Apart from his CMC designation Gabor is certified in several consulting tools used for assessment, training and coaching, including MBTI, DISC, Predictive Index, SSAT and the Customer Focused Selling (CFS) training system.

He authored two books and numerous professional, academic and journalistic publications. He is involved in MBA and EMBA programmes in China (CEIBS, Shanghai Jiao Tong University, Shanghai University) and South-East Asia.

A core topic of Flip Your Talent, Breaking the Circle addresses how vicious circles work and how to get out of them. People find themselves in vicious circles that are many and varied: overtime work causes fatigue, low productivity and more overtime; lack of confidence results in clumsy mistakes that undermine confidence even more... the list could go on.

The speech introduces the core concepts and goes on to illustrate their power on a number of pre-prepared examples specific to the speech host's industry or company.

The Gift of Life mission is to provide hope to children from developing countries with heart disease regardless of their gender, creed, or national origin, by supporting autonomous Gift of Life programs in their efforts to care for these children in need, and coordinating the development of sustainable pediatric cardiac surgery and aftercare programs in select countries, through the empowerment of their healthcare professionals.

President Trump also gives advice how to escape the vicious circle

Highlights from the last meeting

The last evening was presided over by Andrew, with Alejandro reading the Four-Way-Test. David proceeded to announce our guests and visiting Rotarians. Andrew announced his pleasure at having two weeks ago an honorary Rotarian inducted and this evening also having an honorary Rotarian present. David and Linnet reminded us of the soon to come annual party. We have now collected 63.000 RMB in donation values with a target of 75.000. These 75.000 RMB could be used to sponsor three children and we are very close to the goal. Approach David regarding how to donate. Then we came to the first highlight of the evening, the induction of three (3!) new members, namely Louisa Hutton, Charles van Themsche and Jeff Hasenfratz. Welcome to the RCS! Another highlight of the evening was certainly the Japanese food – it seems that the restaurant is improving all the time. Afterwards Nadav gave us a very personal speech about the Inclusion Factory. This is an amazing project and it is an honor for the RCS to have provided some feed – money at an early stage. One of our guests did say it, namely that the RCS is the most active RC he has ever seen with regards to charity. The meeting was adjourned with a toast to the Inclusion Factory.
