Coaching, a powerful tool to grow your business and talents

Within China and on the global stage, we are currently witnessing many industries being completely disrupted. Complexity, uncertainty, volatility and fast change are the new norm. In the meanwhile, millennials are playing an increasingly important role in organizations. In order to maintain competitive advantages, leaders need to increase their efforts to attract, develop and retain talents. Executive coaching has been proven to be a more powerful learning method than many traditional approaches. The speaker will share with audience on common coaching myths and the latest trends.

Cathy Wen is an established leadership development practitioner with more than 20 years of professional experience. She coaches leaders and delivers programs that impacts business results. She has experience working with organizations of all sizes. Currently, she is an associate and consultant of several industry leading companies, including TPA, Korn Ferry and IECL.

Prior to her current role, Cathy was a senior executive at some of the world's most well-known organizations (e.g. Nike, Omnicom, Ferrari). Her corporate experience covers general management, marketing, brand & product communications, crisis management and media consulting.

Before her corporate path, she served in the diplomatic field of the Chinese government to promote the country at the early stage of its economic reforms.

She believes in lifelong learning and is passionate in supporting others' success.

Cathy is a Professional Certified Coach (ICF) and consultant for EQ-I and EQ 360 instruments (MHS). She has been appointed as a member of MBA Mentor Program at China Europe International Business School (CEIBS) since 2015. Cathy has a M.B.A degree from the University of British Columbia (Canada).

Highlights from the last meeting

Almost back to normal, regular meeting was quite busy tonight. The Four Way Test was led by Frank Mulligan and visiting Rotarians and guests introduced by Tiziana in absence of David.

We started enjoying our Indian meal during which few announcements were offered. First one to invite everyone to visit and promote our booth at Expat Show upcoming Friday-Saturday and Sunday. Then Terri introduced our Golf Tournament in aid of Youdao Foundation. The Tournament will have place at Silport on October, 13th (Friday, for those superstitious out there don't worry, it want be scaring. We give insurance of great time and fun!). Support is very much needed and every one is more than welcome to contribute: sponsorship, players and inkind donations will make the event a great success, hopefully even better than last year.

Terri, as our Membership Committee Chair, also introduced some news; every member will get business cards and a RCS polo-shirt. Members are also invited to buy some extra polo for friends and family members so that we can better give visibily to our Club. Cost is very low, 120rmb/each.

Among our visiting Rotarians, we had the pleasure to have Alex Levy, re-founding member of Kunming Rotary Club (Provisional) which was settled first time back to 1947. Alex invited us to Kunming Gala and then introduced his guest, Mr Li Yong, Univeristy and MBA professor in China, Advisor to the China Ministry of Commerce and frequent expert on CCTV NEWS. He told us how he concretely helps people in business and daily life identifying the real problem, using the knowledge to solve it.

At saddle time our Roger and Terry did a very good job with the help of some items for auction.

Speech time: Artem Liebenthal firstly introduced himself to those how did not know him yet, actually he is not just the «Tallest» one but he is a very active and engaged Rotaractor and tonight was also is farewell as he is returning to Germany for a new working adventure and he will get married (back to Asia) on October, 7th. He told us about the e-Learning project for the so called «Left-behind» kids and how it was difficult to start it into rural areas back into September, 2016. The started and moved on with 3 principle subjects: Personal Development, English and Music and difficultes were several, not only finding qualified teachers but also finding suitable locations for all equipment. And here it comes the best part of it: the warm THANK YOU! By students who have never got pressure over them from e-Teachers.

At the end of the speach President Moto-san offered him out RCS Polo shirt and then he toasted to Rotaract.

Expat Show 2017 - A Great Success

Shanghai Rotary Club has successfully participated for the second time in the Shanghai Expat Show (Sept 8-10) collaborating with the Rotaract Club of Shanghai and the Rotary Club of Shanghai Elysée. This year, the Expat Show celebrated its 10th anniversary offering visitors a great variety of products and services on food and beverages, tourism, education and social engagement. Rotarians have greatly contributed to the success of this event by attending the booth with over 25 of our club members and promoting Rotary to the international visitors.

Our Rotary quiz comprised of three questions offering a Rotary branded fidget spinner as a prize, was liked by both, adult visitors and kids, alike. To support the PR activity, a newly created printed Rotary Club Shanghai flyer was distributed to visitors who showed honest and warm interest in our club activities and they even were provided with the opportunity to scan a WeChat QR code to join a group and receive further information about us and our Tuesdays meetings. A big THANK YOU to everybody who has supported this event and has contributed time and resources to make it a huge success, with special note to Nathalie and Thilo who made all this possible through their devotion!
