Austin Powers and the Swinging 60's Party

The wild, the zanny, the evil and everything in between – on display at the Rotary Swinging 60's Party. The amazing host Sam guided us through the action – filled program, from the welcome by President Austin Powers (what a snazzy suit), through amazing singing (forget trying Karaoke again – ever) to a dance display by wonderful Interactors and rather less convincing Rotarians. Yet in the end, whatever the costume, whatever the moves, everybody danced.

Highlights from the last meeting

The meeting began – after Andrews call to order – with the Four Way Test led by Ludovic Anterieur. Then visitors & guests were introduced by Terry Chu

Due to a tight agenda, President Andrew did not do the banner exchange at the usual time, but did so after the meeting. Banners were exchanged with the RC Putnam CT, RC Lacey Washington and RC Damariscotta Newcastle Maine.

Then came video time. Frank Yih, supported by Moto, first summarized the Saturday Rotary Conference and played a video: “Light up Rotary”. As the RC Shanghai West had produced the video and the RCS Rotarians were not much covered though Moto managed to enter the frame three times.

Afterwards Thilo, supported by Guido, took the saddle and also chaired the auction. One important cause of happiness was reported by Linnet: The sales target for the party tickets has been achieved.

After the saddle time, an RCS video was shown (produced by Linnet + Adam,) with pictures of our people, our events and our programs.

The remaining time was given the US Telemedicine delegation led by Rotarian Jim Backer. After a brief speech by Jim, representatives of the delegation introduced their telemedicine program. Andrew concluded the meeting with a toast to the energetic delegation and especially Jim Backer
