Highlights from the last meeting

Last week's highlights include our guest speaker Sacha Stoklin, who talked to us about his goal of improving the Chinese F&B industry service through training.

This was followed by a membership introduction by Cyrus Isaboke. He shared his extensive education background, including a multi-national PHD. He first learned about Rotary in Dalian.

Finally, we had a lively Happy Money session led by sisters Terri and Tracy.

d'Arcy Lunn

Teaspoons of Change / Education in Motion
Group Head of Sustainability and Global Citizenship

Born in Australia, d'Arcy Lunn is committed to seeing a world without extreme poverty for everyone, everywhere, and forever!

He is an Honorary Paul Harris Fellow and Rotary Peace Fellow. Since 2009, d'Arcy has delivered over 1800 presentations to more than 150,000 people in schools, universities, businesses, community groups, government events, and conferences across numerous platforms, including more than 150 Rotary presentations and keynote speeches at Rotary events, RYLA, Interact/Rotaract workshops, District Conferences and more.

d'Arcy has worked on polio eradication with UNICEF and collaborated with Rotary in Pakistan, India, Uganda, and South Sudan. He has also joined with Rotarians in Canada, New Zealand, Australia, the UK, Brunei, Kyrgyzstan, and other countries to promote the work of Rotary and polio eradication. In 2012 his work with Rotarians in Canada resulted in $240m for polio eradication from the Canadian Government, which saw him receive his Honorary PHF.

d'Arcy will be speaking to us about ways to communicate around service and bring about involvement.

China
Rotary
 国际扶轮中国地区

Rotary China is organizing the "House of Friends hip" to be held during Rotary China Annual Summit in April 2022.

The purpose of the "House of Friendship" is for Rotarians to take the opportunity to show their own businesses and professions among other Rotarians.

This event allows Rotarians to support each other in expanding their businesses and provides Rotarians more opportunities to contribute to the Rotary's Community Service Programs.

What is "House of Friendship"?

The "House of Friendship" is a unique Rotary program and often plays an important role at international and district conferences, usually displayed in different formats such as

- ✓ Community Service Based Projects
- ✓ Hobby Based Fellowship Groups, and
- ✓ Business Based Projects

For 2022, the House of Friendship will focus on "Business Based Projects" and "Hobby Based Fellowship Groups".
