BULLETIN No. 1

SHANGHAI, SEPT. 2, 1919

Doc

Attention, Men:

Hypodermically speaking Doc Petit's out to inject more pep into the gang, so he wished the job on the "Sec" and said "serve up something bright and breezy to our busy boys."

So whistle the following over a few times, try them on your piano then give them a final workout at The Parisien this Thursday:

- Proper Name Call him
 Thomas Sammons "Tom"
 (if you dare.)
 W. I. Johnstone
 W. S. Flering

Shanghai Rotary's first cubs are bearcats. Show up on Thursday to give the three new members a big send-off. They'll be with us for the first time:

- E. H. Everett, U. S. Postal Agent.
 S. P. White, Willits and Patterson.
 T. E. Doremus, E. I. du Pont de Nemours Export Co.

Just for information:

The name of any new candidate must first be proposed to some

The modern thought is that every man on the committee is an active participant in the work of the committee, and that the chairman is not expected to use power or persuasion in leading committeemen to that work.

If there are six men on the committee, it should be a six-cylinder committee, and the fact that the chairman gets the spark first is no sign that the other cylinders should not pull their share of the load.

Having your name printed as the member of a committee is not an honor in itself, but merely member of the membership committee. The membership committee offers the chance of your own service. The membership committee offers the chance of your own service. The membership committee offers the chance of your own service.

Here's something pretty nifty under the K. C. Buzz saw, entitled, "Suggestions to Committees,"

Note:—The Sec ducks all responsibility for above. "E & O. E." The blanks left their nicknames back home, or else the Sec has too great awe of them to flirt with possible death for lese majeste. If you want to hang a name on them go to it.

Show up en masse this so the Secretary'll have no abs without-leaves in his book. do you good. Besides "Ros got to furnish the entertainment and who knows! It be LADIES!!

PUMP OR LEAVE THE HANDLE.

There used to be an idea that a man who was appointed chairman of a committee was also allowed to do all the work pertaining to the committee.

This idea is frayed out and worn to shreds.

At the café Parisien, 2^c Edward VII (The Ben Bui Thursday, September 12-30 sharp
