Exploratory visit to the Yue Miao Yuan Home for the Disabled

On January 7th members of the service committee visited the Yue Miao Yuan Home for the Disabled. Target of the visit was to work with the disabled and at the same time to explore if we might set up a club project supporting this home.

Yue Miao Yuan is a privately-run home for the mentally or physically disabled, with 140 residents in two locations (Putuo & Minhang). Yue Miao Yuan was first contacted by Sam Tung to explore what project opportunities there are for the Rotary Club of Shanghai. Saturday Jan. 14th Linnet, Tracy and Andrew joined Sam in an exploratory visit. The outcome is a three level proposal, (1) help for residents whose families face financial hardship, (2) refurbish their property in order to help lease negotiations with the landlord or (3) help to train their residents through Andrew's company in care treatment. These proposals will be presented to the Service Project Committee.

Highlights from the last meeting

The last meeting, as it was situated just before the Chinese New Year, was rather sparsely attended though no less lively. Linnet raised us with the Four-Way-Test and Frank Mulligan introduced our guests. Then, after dinner, President Andrew gave us an overview over the work that had been done over the last half year and what he still plans to achieve in the next 6 months. The catchphrase is : “New Traditionalism” – explore new ways of service without forgetting our roots. A key exhibit highlighting our roots certainly was a list of Rotary Clubs in China from 1934, showing that in China the RC Shanghai is the oldest, and in Asia the second oldest.

One important reminder came from Linnet (see also p1.): Our “Swinging 60s Party” will take place on March 25th! And do NOT call it Gala Dinner !
The meeting was adjourned with a toast to the Committee- and Project Chairs.
