e-Learning project

Today's speech will be from one of our Rotaractors, very much engaged into Rotary family and Service.

Artem Liebenthal has always been active in a variety of charitable works since his early age. He still remembers his fond memories when he used to volunteer on a tall ship and got involved into deck scrapping on the old wood. He continued his full into depth volunteer journey during his studies in the UK side by side with involvement over 300 hours per year, plus gaining a First Class Honours and a Master.

He gained various overseas experiences through international work, studies and conferences, such as in China, South Korea, UK and Japan.

In China since 2016, he continued to support society with Rotaract, in where token on his first meeting a leadership role on projects, such as the one in the rural area of China to support children in their education. Artem supported the projects as Operational Manager and tonight he will join us to give the audience the important update about the e-Learning project sponsored by Rotary.

Artem Liebenthal is not only a valuable person with strong principles but also a young professional in Operation, Quality Assurance and Research for Education. His qualities are leading him to a new adventure at a shared bicycle company in Berlin so don't lose the opportunity to meet him tonight, to listen to his interesting update and give him our warmest farewell.

The Four-Way Test 四大考验 Sì Dà Kǎo Yàn

Of the things we think, say or do:

Highlights from the last meeting

Fellowship started earlier than expected for few of us meeting to enjoy Happy Hour. Rotary dinner fellowship meeting was then chaired by President Moto-san and went through visitors and guests introduction by David which was not really an easy task this time.

Moon's Steakhouse arranged 2 long tables for us which allowed us to enjoy nice atmosphere, nice food and nice chat.

Competition time at banner exchange moment between RC UIM and RC Dunbar! Unfortunately we had one single banner on spot so Rhonda and Klaus had to compete for it. The trophy went to RC UIM but Moto San promised Ms. Bell to courier a banner to her after the meeting. And he did more than this. Like an ancient knight, just right after the dinner, he went to Marriott to take the banner and then went directly to Ms. Bell's hotel which luckily was not too far. Promise was much more than honored!

At 20:30 as per our tradition toast was offered to fellowship and then dinner and fellowship continued. When company is good, leaving is always hard!
