The Four-Way Test 四大考驗

Of the things we think, say, or do:
对于我们所想、所说、所做的事情，
我们应该事先扪心自问：

1. Is it the truth?
是否一切属于真实?
2. Is it fair to all concerned
是否各方得到公平?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
能否促进亲善友谊?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
能否兼顾彼此利益?

Highlights from the last meeting

In our last Rotary event, we had the pleasure of listening to Frank Tsai speak. Frank is the founder and CEO of China Crossroads, an organization that hosts talks from a variety of distinguished speakers. Frank gave a talk about the importance of civil society and how being part of communities allows us to flourish as human beings. He is known for being quite outspoken. One of his most controversial ideas was that we should abandon the notion of needing to improve our mental health individually, and instead focus on how being part of communities can automatically improve our mental health. This idea certainly sparked a lot of debate.

Aside from Frank's talk, this meeting marked the beginning of preparations for the joint celebration of Frank's 90th birthday and Rotary's 104th birthday. The room was filled with great excitement as we started planning for this upcoming event, where we will have the opportunity to celebrate one of the major icons of Shanghai Rotary. With the anticipation of this party and the engaging presence of Frank as a unique speaker, it was a fun night enjoyed by all.

Rohit Ballal

Fostering a Growth Mindset

Rohit Ballal has worked in the education sector in China for the past 9 years. He has worked in a variety of settings, including both private language centers and schools. Over this time, working with children and teenagers, it has become clear to him that the classroom needs to be a safe space for making mistakes.

This is where Rohit's interest in the growth mindset comes from. It is Rohit's hope that after today's talk, parents in particular, but also all of us, will feel empowered to help young people foster a growth mindset.

Mid-autumn Festival by 7 Mandaring speaking club

RC Shanghai Gubei, RC Shanghai West, RC Shanghai Central, RC Shanghai Hongqiao, RC Shanghai Central, RC Suzhou Mandarin and RC Kunshan gather together on Saturday, 16th to celebrate Mid-Autumn Festival.

It has been a great family celebration. So many lovely people willing to spend time together, celebrate, chat, enjoy good food in a very nice location and have fun.

Our club was well represented by SR Andrew, PSR Frank, AG Terri, President Tiziana and PP Tracy.

So, if you ask me, was it good? I will reply it was more than that, it was 好，很好，非常好!!!
