The Four-Way Test 四大考驗

Of the things we think, say, or do:
 对于我们所想、所说、所做的事情，
 我们应该事先扪心自问：

1. Is it the truth?
 是否一切属于真实?
2. Is it fair to all concerned
 是否各方得到公平?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
 能否促进亲善友谊?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
 能否兼顾彼此利益?

Highlights from the last meeting

The RCS dinner meeting on May 23rd was a first for our club in that we held our dinner at the Grand Millennium. It was interesting to test out a different venue. The dessert was a curious combination of ice cream and pineapple slices. We were trying out this other venue as our contract with the Kunlun Hotel is up. A survey has gone out to members and we shall see if we stay at the Kulun or change the venue to the Grand Millennium.

The meeting included a self-introduction by Rohit Ballal. Rohit's presentation was different to previous ones in that it was a quiz about Rohit's life. Rotarians had a chance to see how much they remembered from conversations with Rohit and the unique style of introduction was well-received.

Our guest speaker was Claudia Kosser from FGS Global Partner. Claudia gave a very insightful talk about reputation both for a company and individual. Rotarians had an opportunity to understand how reputation is built and how a company must navigate the tricky world of cultural sensitivities. Claudia provided lots of relevant case studies such as the BMW China scandal. Her talk provoked an engaging, lively discussion among Rotarians.

The meeting was overall a great success. Claudia gave us a thought-provoking discussion and Rohit's induction will be on June 6th. We shall see if the Grand Millennium becomes a new location.
