Highlights from our Christmas Party

December 15, 2020

It has been such a great evening! 40 people attending and sharing together the delicious home made food and the warmest feeling typical of our big Rotary family. A special thanks to our hosts Rita and Mama Carms! Thanks to Brent for the generous food, to Terri for helping with the transportation and to Jingfu for the wine donation and for being our Santa! We were able to commit 5800 rmb from the night to You Dao. That's nearly the cost of 1 child.

the kids at the Disabled Home of Young Adults in Pudong, several Rotarians selected a wish from Santa's gift bag. A watch, a mouse, a school bag, a phone charger and absolutely amazing, thanks to the coming Rotarian Elizabet, one of kids will be able to work for a day at the Waldorf Astoria hotel! If you'd like to support, please contact Jingfu or Vivian: Santa will deliver your love with great happiness!

Additionally, in support of Build's effort to grant the Christmas wishes of

A Rotarian in the Making

Tiziana and her amazing son, Matteo, made a gift drop off at the Shanghai Children's Medical Center, to continue our tradition of gift giving to the kids with leukemia. Unfortunately, we aren't allowed inside the hospital this year, so our Rotary Santa and her Elf made this special trip alone.

Shanghai Comedy Evening

December 11, 2020. Have Fun with Rotary. Last Friday evening was again a special comedy event at the "Real Shanghai Bar" - a place worth visiting also when there is no comedy show. The comedians donated their proceeds to charity, and were rewarded with a full house. The raucous show covered all aspects of living as a foreigner and China and was exhilarating and long. Our immediate PP and our current President had us with their presence, with especially Terri being known as enjoying raunchy shows. Your editor hopes for many repeats of this event.
