Highlights from the last meeting

The Rotary Club of Shanghai was honoured to welcome Dan Wang, Chief Economist of Hang Seng Bank, to its dinner Meeting at Kunlun Hotel Jingan on May 9th. 16 Rotarians, 8 visiting Rotarians from 7 different clubs, including Austria, Russia, Spain, and Hong Kong, and 8 friends embraced the opportunity to listen to the insights shared by Dan Wang on the status of recovery of the Chinese market, especially in regard to housing and consumption. The speaker also talked about new policies after two sessions and about current and future risks. The vivid discussion was only stopped by the tight schedule of the high-profile speaker.

Another eagerly awaited moment was the return of Thomas Bruendl to our club. Thomas, a member of RC Wels, Austria, had sponsored RCS' centennial party back in 2019 as president of the Austrian Starlim Group. Due to COVID, he had not been able to come back to China to receive sincere gratitude from RCS and its members. Rotarian Markus, GM of Starlim China, now finally could thank Thomas for the generous sponsorship in person.

In the end, we were happy to collect 5210 RMB of Happy Money, which will be dedicated to Stepping Stones this week.
