A Historical Night for RC Shanghai

The RCS dinner meeting on March 21, 2023, marked a milestone in the long history of our Club: Our long-term Honorary Members Jingfu Zhang and Richard Fang became our very first local members!

As president David stated, Jingfu and Richard have already served RCS and Rotary International with passion and high commitment for many years. Many new members couldn't even imagine that they had not been regular members before, which yet had not been possible due to respective RI regulations. Now, their patience paid off and both expressed their delight and gratitude in this special moment. Rotarian Carlotta sent her congratulations in this way: "You've become part of history, and it couldn't be anyone else than you two beautiful souls".

Our guest speaker this week was Ben Fusari, founder of Atelier Fusari, one of Shanghai's finest bespoke tailors since 2014. Ben talked to us about the importance of dressing well for any occasion. His most important recommendations: Neither over-dress nor under-dress and to pay attention to the details like shoes, belts, handkerchiefs, etc. Ben also gifted two vouchers for tailor-made shirts, which were auctioned for this month's cause, namely the support of the earthquake-hit areas in Turkey and Syria.

Career Empowerment Program Speed Mentoring Event

Last March 23rd, we completed another successful Career Empowerment Program Speed Mentoring Event, during which around 20 Mentors and 20 Mentees had more than an hour to have a conversation about Career, Life decisions, challenges and future.

The feedback of both Mentees and Mentors was very very positive and everyone appreciated the time well spent. Let's continue having such events, may be one time soon also onsite F2F.
