The Four-Way Test 四大考驗

Of the things we think, say, or do:
我们说的做的要符合:

1. Is it the truth?
是真的吗?
2. Is it fair to all concerned
是公平的吗?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
是善意并促进友谊吗?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
是对大家有利吗?

Highlights from the Latest Fellowship

March 16, 2021

Dinner Attendance:

Members	08
Visiting Rotarians	02
Guests	01
Total Headcount	11

Happy money: RMB 1,000.00

The last fellowship was again not in the Kunlun but simply an informal get-together. This time the venue was chosen by Moto. A Japanese restaurant, which did not disappoint.

A well hidden gem - some Rotarians were close to giving up before finally finding it - and, according to Moto, one of the few restaurants in Shanghai actually run by Japanese, thus guaranteeing the authenticity of the food. The focus was on Hokkaido crab, which was excellent and cooked in a rather unique way, using a straw basket.

Three women Presidents were in attendance, IPP Terrie, President Tracy and PE Rita, underlining how appreciated these fellowships are.

Rapid Perception Shifting

JEFF HASENFRATZ

JEFF HASENFRATZ, Managing Director of the Mindsight Executive Development Network, is a Shanghai-based executive coach, coaching supervisor, facilitator, and Mandarin speaker who has made his home in Asia for almost three decades. His interest in helping organizational clients identify and develop the potential of senior leaders has led him to focus his career in the area of executive development and collaboration. Jeff's 28 years of experience in the technology and human capital consulting industries includes functional specialization in business development and in talent assessment, development, and transition. Previous corporate associations include Hewlett Packard, Russell Reynolds Associates, and Cincinnati Bell, including assignments in Tokyo and Hong Kong. Mindsight, which offers executive team coaching and facilitation for leadership alignment, development, and critical dialogue, was formed in Hong Kong in 2001 and in Shanghai in 2008. Client organizations include professional services firms, plus Fortune 200 firms in the technology, manufacturing, construction materials, consumer goods, and financial services industries. Executive clients are typically CEOs, Managing Directors, Managing Partners, and their Teams. Clients benefit not only from Jeff's ability to help C-Suite executives gain and leverage greater self awareness, leading to performance improvement. They also enjoy his practical and humorous personal style. Jeff, a certified Integral Coach through New Ventures West, Team Coach through CRR Global, and Coaching Supervisor through the Coaching Supervision Academy, also holds the degree of Juris Doctor (Law). He is also certified to interpret the results of the Hogan, MBTI, FIRO-B, SDI, and other quality assessment tools. Jeff founded the Shanghai Coaches Learning Group in 2008 and is a founding member of what is now called the Hong Kong Intl. Coaching Community. He is also a member of the International Coach Federation and the Shanghai Coaching Circle. In his spare time Jeff enjoys practicing taichi, reading, traveling, and spending time with his family.
