A lesson in creativity

Guest Speaker Suhail Nasir

No matter you are trying to find a solution to a business problem or preparing a speech, it always helps to have strong creative abilities. How good it would be if we knew some concepts about how creativity works? Would it not be great to know a few exercises to enhance our creative muscles? In this session Suhail Nasir DTM, will share with us some insights and some practical exercises we can do to get more creative, next time we face a creative challenge.

Suhail Nasir, who works as an engineer for the French telecom giant Alcatel Lucent has also served as past president and area governor in the Toastmasters

International Club. He was the 2008 China National Champion of Public Speaking. He is a well-known comedian performing on stage and television. For more information please check out his weibo: 外派清口

Banner exchange with Rick Woroniecki from RC Buckhead Atlanta

Presided by Frank, our last meeting was again well attended. This time it was our long time member Frank Mulligan who was Sergeant at Arms, assisted ably by David Smith. One of the items auctioned was a bottle of wine donated by Rotaract PP Robert Halasz who, after 7 years, will leave Shanghai. Not only was Robert well appreciated, but so was the wine, which achieved 1.000 RMB, allowing our guest Emile Mac Gillavry to ring the bell.

Highlight of the evening was certainly the presentation given by James Feldkamp about his organization 'Mingjian' and child safety in China, especially with regard to traffic safety and food safety.

Other important news were:

- the visit of our RI President Gary Huang, May 19-22
- the district assembly April 25h
- Olympics in Blue on this coming Sunday, April 26th
- NYU Shanghai Rotaract inauguration on May 8th, 8:00 pm
- Rotary Gala May 22nd (contact Tara for details)

Busy days are coming, please all support by actively participating.
