Theresa Hudzinski

Almost 28 years ago, Theresa Hudzinski began her adventure in Hospitality and The Walt Disney Company at the Disneyland Resort, Anaheim CA.

As her leadership responsibilities expanded, she realized people and building relationships were the tipping point and critical success factor in achieving the goals and success of the overall organization.

Speaker Program: People and Pixie Dust

In 2005, Theresa worked as a taskforce to bring Hong Kong Disneyland to life and share the Disney Magic and begin building the foundation in a new environment and culture.

She returned to Hong Kong Disneyland in 2009 to focus on building, developing and sustaining high performing teams in key support areas. Theresa became part of Shanghai Disneyland Resort in 2013. Bringing with her knowledge and key learnings other sites and build an organization unique to the China market.

Encouraging, developing and motivating employees in their careers became her passion. Focusing on people allows for them to create magic for Guests, inspire each other and drive effective business decisions, and deliver business results.

She was awarded a Lifetime Achievement Award for both Disney Parks and Resorts and International Professional Women's Society (IPWS). Theresa is the current Community Development Executive on the IPWS Board of Directors. In addition, Theresa is a member of the Inspire Hospitality "Forum" Organizing Committee.
