Effective Leadership in China

Dr. Wendong Deng

Our speaker, Dr. Wendong Deng, will talk about a topic which is close to the everyday business challenges most Rotarians here in Shanghai face.. How to be an effective leader in China? Leadership styles deemed effective in one culture may not necessarily be effective in others. Traditional values, communist ideologies, economic reform, and Western management theories and practices, all matters for the effective leadership in China. This speech introduces the leadership style in China and the leadership perception of Chinese young employees. International managers will gain insights on how to become true leaders in China, and meanwhile, Chinese managers to learn how to become international leaders.

Dr. Wendong Deng has a Chinese background and is very experienced in the international arena; he has worked for Siemens Mobile and TÜV SÜD both in Europe and in China. From 2006 to 2011, Wendong founded and managed a business consulting company in Shanghai, which helped European companies to enter China and Chinese companies to realize their overseas expansion strategies.

Wendong has a Master of Science degree from Technical University Munich and MBA degree from Shanghai Jiao Tong University. More recently he received his Ph.D. in management from Erasmus University Rotterdam. Currently he works as the Chief Representative of KIT Intercultural Professionals in Shanghai. Based on this experience he is well positioned to deliver knowledge and practical tools about China.

Agony Aunt – born and raised in a country far far away - has spent 17 years in Shanghai. She is familiar with all things Shanghaiese except the ones she is not familiar with. Her ageless beauty even exceeds her wisdom. She may look like 73 but Shanghai years count triple.

Dear Agony Aunt,

I was told that there are two major service Clubs, Lions and Rotary. Which should I choose.

Yours Undecided in China

Dear Undecided,

The difference is quite simple. In Lions the Hoipolloi is meeting. In Rotary on the other hand, you will have the opportunity of meeting Sir Hoi and Lady Polloi.

Choose wisely,, Agony Aunt

Expat Fair

As every year, Rotary will be present at the Expat Fair, advertising what we do to other Expatriates and attracting new members. (see also flyer on each table and p3 of the electronic version of The Pagoda). The more Rotarians are present, the more effective the effort will be. Visiting Rotarians

Highlights from the last meeting:

The last meeting was, despite the summer holidays, well attended, with two banner exchanges (RC Baunatal, Germany and new Shanghai Rotaract banner) even taking place. Furthermore Moto and Igor presented banner from their respective trips to Japan (RC Tokyo Takanawa and RC Paris Champs-Elysee respectively). President Dean chaired the meeting, with Tiffany and guest speaker Robert also joining at the main table.

Terri reciting the 4 Way test

Terri led us into the 4-Way-Test. The saddle was passed around by Andrew, supported by President Dean. Moto supported the collection by auctioning of Japanese rice cookies, which were won by PP Frank.

Several announcements were also made: There was a reminder to donate 100US$ to RI – for details please contact David Smith. RC committees are still looking for new members – please take a look and join. Kerry updated us on the BOD election for one vacancy. Out of 8 nominees 6 declined, thus Thilo Koeppen and David Smith are the remaining candidates.

Robert then gave us an exciting presentation on the potential for producing musical theatre in China. He started off with a comparison between Broadway and West End shows and explained that first comes awareness, then purchase of tickets and finally success for the producer. He highlighted that the Musical theatre business generates more turnover than the movie business, even though it has not truly entered China so far. Thus Robert is working hard to make Musicals come to China and he aims at becoming China's Cameron Mackintosh.

The meeting was adjourned with a toast to our guest speaker and the success of the Musical Theatre in China.
