It's Show Time!

The 10th Expat Show Shanghai is around the corner and the Rotary Club of Shanghai will be a part of it! As usual, the venue is held at the Shanghai Exhibition Center in Nanjing Xi Lu...so upscale shopping during break times is just around the corner.

The PR Committee will spearhead the organization while heavily relying on your engagement. We need all hands on deck during the preparation as well as execution phase of the event. Please send a note of your engagement readiness to thilo@koeppe.us ASAP. We will get back to you with a catalogue of possible contributions.

Let us have fun letting the world know about our awesome Club!

Highlights from the last meeting

News in the air to welcome SR Frank Yih. For the first time we sang "Let us all welcome District Governor visit our Club" and we all enjoy it. President Moto rang the bell so the meeting had officially started. Tracy led us through the Four-Way Test, then VIP guests were introduced by President Moto while visitors and guests were up to our Sergeant David.

After some free time to enjoy company and dinner Terri introduced the upcoming Golf Tournament in aid of Youdao Foundation which will be held at Silport Golf Club on October, 13th. Visitor Verena from Switzerland invited us to join Rotary Day in Geneva on November, 11th.

Speech time: SR Frank Yih played a video about RIP Ian Riseley Speech, gave us an interesting update about Rotary China, including District financial report related to year 2016-2017. He told us about District Team and Plan and about Rotary Foundation and EREY. Before Q&A he reminded us about RI 2018 Convention which will be held in Toronto and he warmly recommended to join.

Surprise time: from this year every second Tuesday of the month it is Club intention to celebrate monthly birthdays. Among all July birthdays Terri and Filippo were present so we could happily celebrate them. New Tradition was started.

Rita, Chair of Service Committee, gave us an update about our Club service projects: what we did and what we can do with the hope to have more Rotarians involved and engaged into service activities to contribute to our amazing year but most of all to make a difference in our community and our world.

Excellent time management allows us to have time for saddler. David took good care of the moment, superbly supported by President Moto.

Interesting facts of the night: Richard Zi spoke about the importance of Chinese-speaking Club and Harry Wong informed that actually Hangzhou Club is the first Chinese-speaking club in China, but back in last century, and that we will soon have 5 more Clubs of the kind.... We could even have a German-speaking one! Currently we have 25 Rotary Clubs in China (including satellite and provisional clubs) and the target is to reach quota 60 in the next 3 years.

Richard also reminded us about jointed fellowship lunch meeting dated October, 28th at 10.30am. Our hotel, Chinese restaurant.

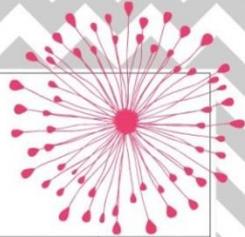

Meeting time is over and President Moto ends it with a grateful thank to SR Frank and delegation plus a toast to "Service Above Self".
