Fellowship in Hongkong

Susanne Moskop

The week before last was - Golden Week in China and therefore a good opportunity to travel. I visited Hongkong and took the opportunity to join fellowship in there. The RC of Kowloon North and RC of Kowloon had a joint meeting with a very special guest: a company that dates back towards the end of the 1800's, — the Jebsen Group. Like the Swires, and Jardines of this world, Jebsen's one of the old established Danish/European trading houses with a long historical footprint in China and Asia. Today, they remain private with over US$ 2 billion in sales. Through PP Klaus Koehler's kind invitation, Helmuth Hennig, Group Managing Director of the Jebsen Group, joined as a special speaker. For Susanne as Visiting Rotarian of her old RC, it was a big hello with the Rotary friends, especially President Rainer Jungjohann

Highlights from the last meeting

Our last meeting was presided over by Andrew, who also introduced the guests. Susanne then tried her hand on the Four-Way-Test. Let us say it was a valliant effort. After dinner and fellowship there was a round of announcements. Linnet introduced the motto of the next gala dinner: „Austin Powers“.

Terri invited everyone to join the family brunch on October 30th (see also p1). Andrew asked for participation in the orphanage project on Chongming Island – this Sunday, so hurry up (for details contact Andrew). Frank distributed fliers inviting all to his birthday party (see also p1). And – yes, there was a big birthday cake for Frank, shared by all.

The happy money session was started with Frank giving 1.000 RMB and inviting all to his birthday party. Afterwards, happy money was somehow dominated by a bidding war between Michelle and Christian, which Michelle did win, courageously bidding even without having enough funds in her purse. The object of desire was a Spanish wine donated by former member Cristina de Santisteban, an over 10 year old wine. Actually Michelle will not enjoy it though, as she graciously gifted it to Frank.

The bidding war was followed by a more peaceful topic, namely Rotex Amadeus Frazier speaking about Rotary Reach. Rotary Reach is a project specifically aimed at promoting understanding through travel, by supporting young people from difficult backgrounds or of modest means to go abroad, targetting student from New York and Shanghai.

The meeting was adjourned with a toast to international travel and to the beautiful Kimono of our speaker.
