Shaowen James Chuan (全紹文, 字希德)

Chuan was born in Peking, 1886. He was graduated from Yale University, USA, with B.A. degree in 1914. He then was General Secretary of the Chinese Students' Christian Association in North America, 1915-1918. In 1918-1921, Chuan was Associate General Secretary of the war Y.M.C.A. work for the Chinese labor battalions with the Allied expeditionary forces. While in this service in Europe, he served also as Chinese delegate to the conference of the World's Committee of the World Student's Christian Federation held at Beantenberg, Switzerland, and to the International World Students' Convention held at Glasgow, Scotland. Upon returning to China in 1921, he became English Secretary to the Director-General of the Chinese Eastern Railway and later Assistant Chief of the Department of Education of the same Railway. In 1925, Chuan was Director of Student Activities in Tsinghua University, Peiping. Later, he was assistant to the President of Yenching University, Peiping, 1926 and Comptroller of the same University since 1930. Chuan was a member of the executive committee of the China International Famine Relief Commission; Chairman of the Board of Directors of Jefferson Academy and Bridgman Academy and Vice-President of the Board of Directors of the Peking Y.M.C.A.
